

Each year the GBFA has a lead pouring party. It is a time to replenish your sinker and jig stocks for the upcoming season. This event draws a good number of anglers from the membership, who usually melt and pour several hundred pounds of lead. The event concludes with a lunch.

